Subject Letter no 37 dated the 10. 12. 15 August 1903 from the President of the Municipal Commission, Bangalore City, regarding the appointment of municipal Commissioners for the two Extensions

In G.P. no 11888-9 & 1792-96 dated the 16th Feb. 1903, the two Extensions of the Bangalore City were ordered to be included within Municipal limits

2 In the present communication, the President reports that the work of assessing the houses in the two Extensions cannot be undertaken without the appointment of Municipal Commissioners for the localities, and suggests that each Extension be constituted at once into

3 separate divisions with one or two elected or nominated members so that the work of assessment of houses may be begun early. The Board have resolved that before any further steps be taken, the Govt be asked to constitute these Ex-divisions into separate Divisions and authorize the election of members for any such Divisions newly formed.

3. It is submitted that under the present election rules the number of municipal Commissioners including of the President and Ex-officio members is fixed at 20. Of these, 6 are Ex-officio 4 nominated and 10 elected as follows:-

B

6 Ex officio
4 nominated
10 elected
20

" III	Manavarthanpet	2
" IV	Ulsoorpet	2
" V	Nagarthapet	1
" VI	Lalbagh	1
" VII	Fort & Thamarajpet	1
	Total	10

4. The present proposal involves a change in the present rules the Divisions will have to be raised to 9 and 6 more Commissioners will have to be added on to the present number, partly by election and partly by appointment as the valuation of the properties in the two Extensions has not yet been made, which is a condition precedent to election, a number of Commissioners will have to be appointed by name This, the Govt can do on the recommendation of the Municipal Board (Please see latter part of section 5 of the Municipal Regulations)

6 The Constitution of Divisions may be notified and Members to be appointed by Nomination. Though the election rules of 96 say that the number of Members shall be 20, S.3 of the Municipal Regns seems to require 2 Members being appointed for each Division substituted by for S.5 allows increase of the number of Members. May orders issue accdg to this? I do not think this matter need go before Council (so far as even of Members is concerned) of 24th June 1896 are "until further orders". An addition to the Revisions would of course be an addition to the Rules of Court. However, there seems no objection to the question being placed before the Council if the Secretary for Legislative Affairs so desires.

8. Should the measure now under consideration which ought to be termed consolidating, to be remitted so much of the revenue as now is lost because the arrangements are made which add them to the various divisions, and ask the Rules Committee to compound the order. At least remember desirable that it is expected of the Rules Committee, President to carry out the order, of fact and not mere accessories, or clerks. If there is any objection which you should be glad to know of the Secretary will please.

9 Racecourse and Malleewan are important extensions - the have ordered their inclusion within usual limits. The Board's proposal that they be exempt from separate decision does not appear to me to be unreasonable. May I ask for reconsideration of proposal? If the rules require modifica- tion by all means, let us modify them at once - I am afraid it is not fair either to the Board or to the Presidency that we should first fault- with them in this case - Let the no of divisions be increased by two and that of Commissioners by 4 the rules being modified accordingly. These extensions cannot easily be added on to existing divisions or be efficiently looked after by the Head Office of the latter - Q

B The alteration of rules has become necessary by the inclusion of the two extensions Kumaranasalagunda & Malleswara in Bangalore City Municipality. The Commissioners have agreed to it and the alteration proposed now for approval.

D E The proofs & Index are incidental & will be issued.

There has been a great delay in this matter & in the interval the loss of Rs 2 lakhs also. Still there will be prospects after these alterations have been notified I am not convinced that there would have been any great deal of difficulty in treating these Wards as Wards of other Divisions and avoiding such delay. But that aspect need now be considered
